Arnita Roberts-Christie, DHA, RN, earned her BS in Nursing from Widener University and a MS in Human Resource Development with a counseling certificate from the University of Bridgeport. Dr. Roberts-Christine completed her Doctor of Healthcare Administration from Virginia University at Lynchburg. With over 40 years in healthcare, she has held clinical, corporate, and advocacy roles, including Director of Advocacy for women's health at GSK. Arnita is a global health equity advocate and speaker, focusing on empowering patients and amplifying diverse voices in healthcare.